

On-Site Guarding

A Knowledge Leader in On-site Guarding

Every day Top Security uniformed officers perform a variety of duties to help maintain secure environments for hundreds of clients across Republic of Ireland.

Because Top Security is a client-focused organisation, we thoroughly screen and train our officers to provide a level of service that directly responds to our client's expectations. We strive to provide employees who are focused, committed and fully trained to help secure your business and assets. Additionally, we direct our internal resources so that our managers and supervisory personnel can help your security program consistently meet your goals every day.

Our On-site Guarding Services

We know that every business environment has different security needs, which is why we have leveraged our knowledge and expertise to develop a variety of guarding functions to suit every industry. After performing an Operational Analysis of your site, we will recommend the services that best fit your security needs.

Overview of security services that Top Security can provide, as they apply to your site:

- Reception/concierge services
- Console operations
- Special event security
- Patrol and inspection services
- Safety equipment checks
- Alarm and emergency response
- Employee and visitor badging and identification
- Transportation services and parking coordination
- Customised and site-specific security tasks

Tools and Training - A Winning Combination

All Top Security officers go through extensive training programs that leverage online technology and the latest learning practices. In addition, we provide our officers with the online Learning Management System that offers self-paced learning to remain well-informed of new security threats. Once security officers are assigned to your site, they will have on-site training of your post orders so they are fully knowledgeable about your facilities.

Our Commitment to Security

Top Security is committed to providing individualised attention to client needs. We work closely with our clients to establish their security priorities and develop action plans, performance targets and measurement systems that will help assist us in meeting or exceeding their expectations. Most importantly, clients can benefit from an integrated security solution that is demonstrably superior to what is currently in place — a program that is designed and managed to the highest professional standards.

At Top Security, we help secure your environment, your employees and your assets, so that you can focus on your core business. Top Security is a knowledge leader in security. As the nation's leading security provider, Top Security and its affiliates offer security solutions, including on-site security officers, mobile patrol, remote security monitoring, and corporate risk management. Everywhere from small businesses to large corporations, our employees are making a difference.
